

IN MEMORIAM.

A Fine Specimen of Pen Work and Frame.

At a convention of the Mystic Lodge No. 2, K. of P. held Wednesday evening, the following set of resolutions of condolence, drafted by Bro. Ed. Towse, beautifully engrossed by Viggo Jacobson and enclosed in an appropriate frame of an oxydized silver color, were submitted for final approval, viz: CASTLE HALL, MYSTIC LODGE NO. 2, K. of P.

Honolulu, H. I., Oct. 30, 1895.

Whereas, By the dispensation of the all-wise Providence, death has invaded our ranks and taken from us a brother of unusual worth and of cheerful ardor:

Resolved, That we hereby express our keen sorrow over the death of Knight Sam'l. Louison, a companion who was an honor to this lodge and an ornament to the order; that we mourn him as one who by his integrity and manliness exemplified to an excited degree the highest lessons of Pythian Knighthood; and that this lodge extend to Mr. and Mrs. M. Louison, the bereaved parents, and the sorrowing relatives, our sincere condolences in their hours of grief.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this convention and a copy sent to Mr. and Mrs. M. Louison.

Geo. Burns, C. C.

A. E. Murphy,

K. of H. and S.

The text of the document is done in very handsome lettering, the whole being surrounded by a border, representing various scenes from the famous and romantic story of Damon and Pythias from which the order derives its name. To add that this memorial was got up by Viggo Jacobson is to say that it is done well. Indeed, so well were the members pleased that, besides accepting the work at once, a unanimous vote of thanks to the clever penman, for the manner in which he has performed his work, was unanimously adopted.

Ex-Congressman Ben Cable, of Illinois, has a little daughter who has the making of a great financier in her. One day her father called her to him. "My dear," said he, "a man this morning of fered papa this room full of gold if he would sell little brother. Now, that needs gold enough to fill this room from wall to wall and floor to ceiling. If I sell little brother for that sum, I shall be able to buy everything in the world you want. Shall I sell him?" "No, papa," answered the little girl promptly, and then, before her delighted father could embrace her for expressing so much unselfish affection, she went on: "Keep him till he's bigger. He'll be worth more then."—Washington Post.

"That was what you call a Trilby cocktail, wasn't it, bartender?" said Rivers, setting down his glass and reaching for a clove.

"Trilby? I don't understand," replied the bartender.

"You tried to make something unusually fine and you put your foot in it."—Chicago Tribune.

He struck a match on his heel to use in lighting her lamp, when she remarked: "You are as spry as a cat, aren't you?"

"Do you think so?" he returned in a pleasant tone.

"Yes; you light on your feet, you know."—The Wheel.

At their 5 o'clock Tea (the Daughter of the Revolution)—At our last meeting Mrs. O'Brien told how her great grandmother sacrificed the family plate for the cause.

FITS CURED

(From U. S. Journal of Medicine.)
Prof. W. L. Peck, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician. His success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years' standing cured by him. He publishes a valuable work on this disease which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P. O. and Express address. We advise anyone wishing a cure to address, Prof. W. L. PECK, P. O. Box 4, Colar, N. Y.

Good Advice Quickly Followed

Cured of Rheumatism by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"I was taken down with rheumatism over a year ago. I was sick for over six months. Often I would have such pains that I could hardly endure them. A friend came to me and advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took him at his word and got a bottle of it, and since have taken eight bottles of it.

It Has Cured Me
When the doctors could do me no good whatever. After being benefited so much from this medicine I describe Hood's Sarsaparilla as a wonderful medicine. I also advise every one who is troubled with rheumatism not to be without Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am a farmer, and the medicine has given me much energy and strength to perform my work." GEORGE W. TULEY, Benjamin, Missouri.

Save Money!

You throw away dollars every year in broken lamp chimneys. Better stop it now while you can get a preparation that will prevent a chimney from breaking when put on wet. Prof. Humboldt's anti-explosive compound will do this and will prevent the explosion of kerosene oil and gasoline. We are sole agents for this preparation as well as for the New Ideal Sewing Machine, the equal to any high priced article, and we sell it for $30 and $35 with attachments. 15000 feet of mouldings for picture frames just received by the "Albert," also oval and circular frames, something new and elegant.

DRY GOODS

In Honolulu there is always something that demands the attention of the fair sex. More especially is this true when good bargains are offered. In catering to the wants of the Honolulu ladies, the merchants must buy judiciously and select only the most artistic designs. Especially is this true of white dress goods. I received by the AUSTRALIA a new line of these goods that are very pretty. They must be seen, however, to be appreciated. I also received a fine line of Ladies' Shirt Waists and Corsets. Now that the Cholera is over and life, socially, has resumed its normal condition, the dry goods business must increase materially in the next month. Anticipating this demand I have laid in this fine stock of goods and they are now ready for your inspection, and can be purchased at a reasonable figure.
